June 17: Hustle Bustle Move Your Muscle

Push pause on the DS, turn off the tv and put away the ipad. It's time to get up and move! We will keep our bodies moving during yoga, music and movement, the bouncy house, bike painting, and the bubble wrap bounce.

June 24: Junior Architects

July 8: Slime Time!

There is nothing kid's love more than camping out and roasting marshmallows, making s'mores and enjoying the great outdoors EXCEPT HAVING SILLY MESSY FUN THAT WOULDN'T BE PERMITTED HOME! Come join the messy fun in this exciting camp! Don't forget your old clothes!

July 18: Tastebuds: Cooking through Literature

Children love to help in the kitchen. A fun way to connect learning and cooking is through children's literature. We will use books to inspire our daily recipes: Whole Wheat Pizzas from Little Red Hen Makes a Pizza, Strawberry Shortcake from Cookadoodledoo, Strawberry Jam from Jam-berry and Blueberry Muffins from If you Give a Moose a Muffin.

July 29: Eco-exploreres: Grossology!

Lab coats included. Get ready for a gross adventure as you discover some of nature's slimy, scaly and squirmy creatures! Learn about animal grossology as you dissect an owl pellet and discover some of the grossest animal behaviors in nature! Our friends from the Children's Museum Center will be joining us with their Giant Doll...Stuffy!

June 17: Wiggles and Giggles

Let's shake our sillies out and get our bodies moving as we jump, spin, bounce, climb and all the things that toddler love to do! We will keep our bodies moving during music and movement, jumping in the bouncy house, climbing through tunnels, and the doing the bubble wrap bounce.

June 24: Tastebuds

Children love to help in the kitchen! Our junior campers will discover the world of cooking by using their five senses as they pour, mix and explore all the wonders of food.

July 8: Toddlerpalooza

Come join our musical party!

July 18: Bubble Bubble Pop!

Our bubble bubble pop camp will nurture your child's curiosity of the natural world around them through exploration of water play and bubble fun.
